Logical Fallacies Game 2

Match the name of the logical fallacy with the example. Choose a logical fallacy from the list below and write the letter on the blank line next to the matching example.

A. Argument from False Authority
B. False Cause (Post Hoc Reasoning)
C. Either or Reasoning (False Dilemma)
D. Hasty Generalization
E. Personal Attack (Ad Hominem)
F. Slippery Slope

_____ 1. We must either give up some of our constitutional liberties to ensure that the government can protect us against terrorism or we will again fall prey to terrorists.

_____ 2. We should castrate all sex offenders; experts say we should.

_____ 3. Since I walked under a ladder yesterday, I’ve lost my wallet and received a speeding ticket.

_____ 5. I recently read about a homeless man with a burst appendix who was turned away from a hospital emergency room to die in the street. It’s obvious that hospitals don’t care about people, only money.

_____ 6. How can that judge favor stronger penalties for convicted drug dealers since he admitted that he smoked marijuana before.