Drawn to Annihilation: The Holocaust Presented in Graphic Novel Form

Dr. Joseph Campbell and Lance Jones

ENGL 2490-90 Graphic Novels (3 credits) T/TH 2-3:15 p.m.

HIST 2080-90 Holocaust (3 credits) T/TH 5:30-6:45 p.m.

The Holocaust, the destruction of European Jews and others by National Socialist Germany and her allies during the period of 1933-45, continues to haunt the collective conscience of mankind. The graphic novel has become a genre of literature, respected in its own right, and cannot be dismissed as a mere "comic book" in today's culture. Dr. Joseph Campbell and Lance Jones will present the historical events of one of the darkest times in human history, recorded in the visual form of the modern graphic novel.

How Do I Sign Up for a Learning Community?

You should take this card to your advisor and show them the courses below that you want the rest of your schedule to work around. Your advisor should help you to complete your course schedule. Once your advisor takes off the registration holds, complete the following steps:

1. Sign in to WebAdvisor using your user ID and password.
2. Click on “Students” and then on “Register for Sections.”
3. Click on “Express Register.”
4. Enter the class information given below for all of your learning community courses, as well as your other chosen courses and click “Submit.”
5. Review the information to make sure it is correct and click “OK.” Be certain that you are registered for BOTH courses or you will be withdrawn from the isolated learning community course in the first week of class.
6. Check “My Schedule” for registration results before logging out of WebAdvisor.
7. You can now log out of WebAdvisor.
