

Learning Communities Proposal Evaluation Rubric

Proposals for new courses will be evaluated based upon the Eastfield College Learning Community Proposal form by the Dean of Academic Enrichment along with the Learning Communities Mentoring Team. Proposals must be approved by the appropriate division deans prior to consideration. The proposal may be accepted, rejected, or conditionally accepted pending revisions.

Criteria	Inadequate	Adequate	Superior
Rationale for the Learning Community
Integration of course content across disciplines into a common theme
Assignments and assessments clearly defined and integrated Indication of relationship to college goals (retention, engagement and collaboration)
Integrated student learning outcomes and assessments defined
Proposal must be scored a minimum of Adequate in each category to be considered for approval.			