

WASHINGTON STATE LEARNING COMMUNITY COORDINATORS' MEETING

CO-SPONSORS: WASHINGTON LEARNING COMMUNITIES CONSORTIUM & WASHINGTON CENTER

MONDAY, OCTOBER 22, 2012

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON–BOTHELL

PRELIMINARY AGENDA

- 8:30 – 9:00 Refreshments & check-in
LC Observation sign-up (optional)
- 9:00 – 9:30 Welcome to the work: Campus introductions
- 9:30 – 10:45 Voices of experiences: Panel discussion with UW–Bothell faculty, student services staff, and administrators
- 10:45 – 11:00 Break / transition time for moving to LC classrooms
- 11:00 – 12:00 Watching the walk or Talking the talk
Option I: Learning Community class observations
Option II: Discussion of Pike's article, "Learning about Learning Communities: Consider the Variables"
- 12:00 – 12:15 Break
- 12:15 – 1:00 Discussion and Lunch
- 1:00-1:30 Assessing Learning Community Programs—Issues and Projects
Washington Center Co-directors Gillies Malnarich & Emily Lardner
- 1:30 – 2:45 Making Student Learning Visible
Presentation by Jack Mino, Professor of Psychology in "Interdisciplinary Human Studies" and co-founder of the Learning Communities program at Holyoke Community College
- 2:45 – 3:00 2011-2012 WLCC Steering Committee Nominations
Wrap-up & closing remarks
- 3:00 – 3:30 WLCC Steering Committee Meeting